INSPECTOR GENERAL

This is the third edition of the Inspector General Deskbook, created as a training aid for persons new to the inspector general community, and as a reference manual of the statutory, regulatory, and case law regarding the authority and responsibilities of inspectors general.

This third edition reflects the changes to the Inspector General Act made by the Inspector General Reform Act of 2008, and recent case law regarding inspector general authority. It also incorporates relevant excerpts from other laws that mandate inspector general work.

This Deskbook was created and updated by the Treasury Office of Inspector General Office of Counsel. This update has been created by law clerk Matt Slentz. Questions regarding this Deskbook can be directed to Counsel to the Inspector General Rich Delmar on (202) 927-3973.
